JURORS FLIP COIN

"Nothing" Verdict of Chance in Case Against Railway Company.

One Man Was in Hurry to the defendant?" Get Away Excuse for Violating Their Oaths.

Twelve "good men and true," sitting as jurors in the Supreme Court to-day was the cause of action, disagreed in the deliberating room and tossed a coin to determine whether the mother and and the evidence alone. ing for the loss of their litle one.

The coin said "nothing." But when Justice Grey learned of it through questioning the foreman, Timothy S. Yale, he set aside the verdict, scored the jurymen and fined them $50

In a Hurry to Get Away. The jurors were all much crestfallen and one of them arose in his place in an attempt to explain. He said: Your Honor, we were hopelessly divided, standing 9 to 3 for a verdict in favor of the stricken parents of this pressing business engagement. So we called in a thirteenth juror in the shape of this coin. I am sure we are all heartily sorry."

SIEGEL COOPER

OR the present, this store is practically the incoming Manhattan terminal of the entire system.

Residents of Hoboken and of all the towns on the Lackawanna Railroad are thus given quick and direct access to the most popular store in the world. With the addition of a short surface-car ride the same advantage is open to all residents of New Jersey served by the Pennsylvania, Central New Jersey, Susquehanna and Erie railroads.

We have paralleled this improvement in transportation facilities by corresponding improvements in our New Jersey delivery system, which we believe to be the most complete and perfect provided by any store. With this convenient and easy access and this prompt and punctual delivery system, added to the invariable attractions of large stocks and common-sense prices characteristic of this store, Siegel Cooper's will be more than ever the chief provider of the New Jersey resident's wants.
